Safety

Keep Your Meter Safe

Don't let Old Man Winter compromise the safety of your home. Keep your meter clear of snow and ice this winter.

On Your Side

Payment Assistance for Gas & Electric (PAGE)

The PAGE energy assistance program benefits homeowners and renters who are NJ residents; have not have received Universal Service Fund (USF) in the past 6 months or Home Energy Assistance (HEA) within the last heating season, facing a crisis situation that includes a documented notice of overdue payment for gas and/or electric service, and have a past history of making regular payments towards their utility bills. For more information or to apply, visit www.housingall.org or call 732-982-8710.

NJ SHARES Grants Available

This program is open to any NJ resident who needs temporary help paying his/her utility bill. Customers must have an income level that does not exceed 400% of the Federal Poverty Level.

Customer Reminder

Is Your Information Current?

To help us serve you better, please send us any changes to your information, by mailing us the completed form below or by e-mailing us at customercare@sjindustries.com. Also, you should have an alternate contact listed on your account in case of an interruption in gas service and you are not available. The alternate contact could be a cell number, property management office, neighbor, family member, etc.

Note: your service and mailing addresses may differ. This is especially true for customers who receive mail at post office boxes. Your service address is where your gas meter is located; your mailing address is where you receive bills and other correspondence.

Third Party Notification

This program helps customers who may forget or misunderstand a shut-off notice for not paying a gas bill. A third party, like a friend or relative, will receive a copy of the bill with a shut-off notice in it. While this person isn't responsible for paying the outstanding balance, he or she can take steps to ensure continued service.

To enroll, contact our Customer Care Center via e-mail at customercare@sjindustries.com or by phone at 1-888-766-9900.
